Sub: Ban on engaging in labour/EPF consultancy work by officials/officers of EPFO directly or indirectly through family members Issue of suitable guidelines - Reg.

Madam/Sir,

It has been observed that certain officials, either directly or indirectly through family members, are engaged in labour/EPF consultancy work. Such activities create a conflict of interest, compromise the integrity of the organisation and erode public trust in the EPFO.

To uphold the highest standards of professionalism, transparency, and impartiality, it is essential to impose a strict ban on these activities. The following directives are hereby reiterated:

1. No official of the EPFO is permitted to engage, directly or indirectly, in any labour/EPF consultancy work.
2. Officials are also prohibited from facilitating such consultancy activities through family members, relatives, or any other connected individuals.
3. Any involvement in such practices will result in severe disciplinary action against the official involved.

Zonal ACC (HQs)/ ACCs are requested to sensitize the officials to adhere to these guidelines without any exception.

Yours faithfully,

Choradia
(Bhaskar Choradia)
